Two additional bedrooms and a bright bonus room provide flexible space that can function as a large home office or an additional living area. There are 9ft ceilings on the upper floor which isn't very common. The outdoor area offers an inviting retreat with an expansive backyard that features a large patio space, perfect for placing your own outdoor furniture and enjoying time outside. The yard also includes established fruit trees and a two-year-old hot tub, protected year-round by a gazebo—ideal for summer gatherings or relaxing fall evenings with hot chocolate.

Another key point to note is that the roof was replaced only three years ago, ensuring reliable performance for many years to come. There is no immediate need for replacement.
