This fully developed 4 bedroom, 2 bathroom bi-level is tucked away in an excellent south-side neighbourhood and offers incredible potential. With basement entry and a smart layout, the home has been exceptionally cared for and is in terrific condition. Step inside to find spacious rooms, bright natural light, and a solid floor plan that's ready for your personal touch. While some the finishes may be ready for your personal touch, the home's quality craftsmanship and meticulous upkeep shine through. The lower level is fully finished, providing plenty of space for family living, hobbies, or guests. Outside, enjoy a private yard, single garage and ample parking as well as the benefit of an established, sought-after community close to schools, shopping, and parks. This is a great opportunity to own "Grandpa's house", a home with great bones, great care, and great potential.
