Welcome to 204 Corvette Crescent South! Since 1980, the same owners have enjoyed this great home. Located in a much sought-after southside location, this home is perfect for young families or someone wanting to own an investment property. This home features three large bedrooms and two bathrooms on the main floor, as well as a huge living room, kitchen and dining area. The lower level has a massive family room, rec area, bedroom and bathroom. Recent upgrades in the home include vinyl flooring, paint, and toilets, on the main level. Located right across the street from General Stewart School, you can watch your children walk into the school, or play on the playground from the kitchen window. In the summer, you can watch the Canada Day fireworks from the front driveway! Located just two blocks from Henderson Lake, you are also just a two minute drive to the Crowsnest Highway for a quick weekend getaway.
